

Government
of South Australia

Where can I find information about my child's immunisations?

The National Immunisation program recommends a number of vaccines for all children at certain times. They are a simple, safe and effective way to protect children (and adults) from serious diseases.

To find out more, look in your Blue Book.

www.cyh.com/bluebook